

A large, vertically oriented, rounded rectangular writing area. The shape is defined by a thick black border. The top and bottom corners are rounded, while the sides are slightly curved inward. The interior of the shape is filled with horizontal blue lines, spaced evenly, providing a guide for handwriting. The lines are light blue and extend across the width of the writing area.